

XPLG Updates

XPLG releases software updates several times a year. The updates includes new features, enhancements, security updates, optimizations and bug fixes.

Release notes about each update may be found here.

This topic covers the steps required to update an XPLG instance/cluster with the latest available update if applicable.

For additional details please contact us support@xplg.com